Cost-Effective Upgrades for Your Employee Advocacy Program

Updating an employee advocacy program can be complex and expensive. Our incremental pricing structure simplifies this process by offering gradual, modular upgrades. This allows businesses to enhance their programs step by step without a major financial outlay.

Modular Pricing for Your Employee Advocacy Program

Our pricing structure is built around six key components: Activity Bundles, Messaging, Reporting and Analytics, Incentive Management, Security and Access, and Expert Services. Each component is available in various tiers, from basic to advanced. This lets businesses choose the level of service that fits their current needs and budget.

Gradual Enhancements for Your Employee Advocacy Program

Start with a basic Activity Bundle to manage engagement. As your program develops, you can upgrade to more advanced analytics and tracking tools. This phased approach spreads costs over time and aligns with your growth, avoiding large upfront investments.

Phased Upgrades in Messaging for Your Employee Advocacy Program

Begin with standard messaging tools and templates. As your strategy evolves, upgrade to advanced options like A/B testing and automation features. This incremental enhancement helps integrate new technologies smoothly and cost-effectively.

Targeted Improvements in Your Employee Advocacy Program

Our approach is ideal for businesses looking to make specific improvements. Instead of overhauling an entire system, focus on upgrading individual components. This ensures that each upgrade brings immediate benefits and optimizes your program's performance without disrupting your operations.
